A DOUBLE DIVE BY MAURITZI AND HAGBORG INCLUDING TWO SOMERSAULTS.

This picture is reproduced from two very remarkable photographs taken during the recent Life-Saving Soiety gala at Highgate, near London. The divers are Charles Mauritzi and Otto Hagborg, two of the most famous aquatic experts in Sweden. Their control of their bodies while dropping through space to the water from great heights is wonderful, and their exhibitions are always thrilling to breath-holding spectators. In the double dive shown above Mauritzi and Hagborg jumped from a platform almost one hundred feet high and before they struck the water turned two slow somersaults. The photographer caught one at the beginning and the other at the finish
